CLIENT CERTIFICATE

Friday , 18 April 2025

We are pleased to inform you that Krushi Prasar Foundation is officially assigning you the responsibility for the design and development of a customized digital solution titled: "Creativity Catalyst: Project Submission and Competition Hub". We are pleased to officially acknowledge the successful completion of the customized digital solution titled: "Creativity Catalyst: Project Submission and Competition Hub", developed by you for Krushi Prasar Foundation. This platform was envisioned to streamline and digitize the academic project submission and university-level competition management process.

We are delighted to note that the final product effectively delivers structured multi-stage project submissions, centralized competition hosting, and a robust role-based access hierarchy that caters to the needs of various educational stakeholders. We appreciate your dedication, technical expertise, and innovative approach throughout the development, implementation, and deployment phases. Your commitment to quality and timely delivery has played a key role in the success of this project.

This letter serves as an official confirmation from Krushi Prasar Foundation that the aforementioned project has been successfully completed and delivered as per our expectations. We look forward to future collaborations and wish you continued success in your endeavors. This project aims to streamline and digitize the academic project submission and university-level competition management process.

The system will serve educational institutions by offering structured multi-stage project submissions, centralized competition hosting, and a robust role-based access hierarchy. You are being entrusted with the end-to-end development, implementation, and deployment of this platform. We are confident in your technical capabilities and innovative approach, and we look forward to a successful collaboration that brings value to educational stakeholders. We look forward to your expertise and commitment in delivering this project successfully and on time. This letter serves as an official confirmation from Krushi Prasar Foundation for the assignment of the above-mentioned project.

Sincerely,
